Business Development Agent does not directly store full credit card numbers.

Technical Information

The platform may collect technical information such as:

- Browser type
- Device type
- IP address
- Log data
- Usage activity
- Error logs
- Widget activity

2 . How Information Is Used

Information may be used to:

- Create and manage user accounts.
 - Configure each Business Development Agent.
 - Generate customer quotes.
 - Send quote summaries by email.
 - Manage subscription access.
 - Enable or disable website widgets.
 - Improve platform functionality.
 - Provide customer support.
 - Maintain security.
 - Comply with legal obligations.

3. AI Processing

Business Development Agent may send relevant business profile data, quote request data, pricing rules, services, policies, and customer-provided details to AI service providers to generate quote summaries, customer responses, assumptions, follow-up questions, and quote documents.

AI-generated outputs are based on information provided by the business and customer. Users are responsible for reviewing final quote language and pricing decisions.

4. Data Sharing

Business Development Agent may share limited information with third-party providers necessary to operate the platform, including:

- Payment processors
- Authentication providers
- Email service providers
- Cloud hosting providers
- Database providers
- AI service providers

Business Development Agent does not sell customer data to advertisers.

5. Business Data Separation

Each business account is logically separated through unique business identifiers and client IDs. Business-specific information is used to configure that business's own agent and widget.

One business's pricing, services, customer requests, quote settings, and agent preferences are not intentionally shared with another business.

6. Data Retention

Business Development Agent may retain account, billing, business profile, quote, and widget data while an account is active or as needed for business, legal, security, or operational purposes.

If a subscription is canceled or a trial expires, account data may be preserved so access can be restored if the account is reactivated.

Users may request deletion of account data by contacting [Support Email].

7. Security

Business Development Agent uses commercially reasonable safeguards to protect account and business information. However, no system can guarantee complete security.

Users are responsible for maintaining secure passwords and protecting account access.

8. Cookies and Tracking

The platform may use cookies or similar technologies for authentication, session management, security, analytics, and platform functionality.

9. Children's Privacy

Business Development Agent is intended for business users and is not directed toward children under 18.

10. Updates

This Privacy Policy may be updated periodically. Continued use of the platform after updates are posted means the user accepts the revised policy.
