Business Development Agent Terms of Service

Effective Date: 7/8/2026

Business Development Agent is owned and operated by Sean Pelillo Enterprises. These Terms of Service govern access to and use of the Business Development Agent platform, website, software, dashboard, embedded website widget, quote generation tools, billing features, and related services.

By creating an account, using the platform, or embedding the Business Development Agent widget on a website, the user agrees to these Terms.

1. Service Description

Business Development Agent provides software that helps local service businesses create, configure, test, and deploy a business-specific digital agent. The platform may help businesses collect customer information, generate preliminary quotes, summarize customer requests, format quote documents, send quote-related emails, and manage website widget settings.

Business Development Agent does not perform physical services, guarantee job pricing, accept service work on behalf of users, or enter into service agreements between businesses and their customers.

2. Ownership and Operation

Business Development Agent is owned and operated by Sean Pelillo Enterprises.

All software, platform designs, branding, workflows, templates, website code, widget code, and system logic are the property of Sean Pelillo Enterprises unless otherwise stated.

3. Accounts

Users are responsible for maintaining accurate account information and securing login credentials. Users agree not to share account access with unauthorized individuals.

Business Development Agent may suspend or restrict accounts for nonpayment, misuse, fraudulent activity, abuse of the platform, or violation of these Terms.

4. Business Information

Users are responsible for entering accurate business information, including services, pricing, operating areas, policies, quote rules, business tone, and customer-facing preferences.

Business Development Agent may use this information to generate quote outputs, customer responses, widget behavior, and account-specific agent preferences.

Users remain fully responsible for reviewing and approving all information entered into the platform.

5. Quotes and AI-Generated Output

Business Development Agent may generate preliminary quotes, price ranges, assumptions, customer summaries, follow-up questions, and quote documents.

All quotes generated by the platform are preliminary estimates only. They are not final invoices, contracts, guarantees, or binding service agreements.

The business using the platform is solely responsible for reviewing, confirming, modifying, accepting, or rejecting any quote before providing services to a customer.

Business Development Agent does not guarantee quote accuracy, job profitability, customer acceptance, or final pricing outcomes.

6. Customer Communications

The platform may send emails to customers and business owners containing quote summaries, quote PDFs, or follow-up information.

Users are responsible for ensuring that all customer communications comply with applicable laws, business policies, and customer consent requirements.

7. Subscriptions, Free Trials, and Billing

Business Development Agent may offer a free trial period. At the end of the trial period, continued access may require a paid subscription.

Paid plans may include monthly or annual subscriptions and a one-time implementation or setup fee.

Payments are processed through Stripe. Business Development Agent does not directly store complete credit card numbers.

Failure to pay, cancellation, or expired trial status may result in restricted platform access and disabled website widget functionality.

8. Cancellation

Users may cancel their subscription through the Billing section or Stripe Customer Portal when available.

Upon cancellation, the account may become inactive. Business data, widget settings, quote settings, and agent preferences may be preserved for possible future reactivation.

Business Development Agent may disable the embedded widget for inactive, canceled, expired, or past-due accounts.

9. Acceptable Use

Users may not use Business Development Agent to:

- Commit fraud or misrepresent pricing.
 - Provide illegal services.
 - Harass, deceive, or exploit customers.
 - Attempt to reverse engineer or copy the platform.
 - Interfere with platform security.
 - Upload, submit, or transmit malicious code.
 - Use the platform in a way that violates applicable laws.

10. Service Availability

Business Development Agent aims to provide reliable service but does not guarantee uninterrupted access. The platform may experience downtime due to maintenance, third-party outages, hosting issues, software updates, payment processor issues, authentication provider issues, or AI provider issues.

11. Third-Party Services

Business Development Agent may rely on third-party services, including payment processing, authentication, email delivery, cloud hosting, database services, and AI model providers.

Use of the platform may involve these third-party services operating in connection with the user's account.

12. Intellectual Property

Users retain ownership of their business names, logos, customer lists, pricing information, and business-specific content entered into the platform.

Sean Pelillo Enterprises retains ownership of Business Development Agent software, branding, workflows, system designs, platform templates, widget code, and related intellectual property.

13. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Sean Pelillo Enterprises and Business Development Agent are not liable for lost profits, inaccurate quotes, lost customers, service disputes, incorrect customer information, pricing errors, platform downtime, or indirect damages arising from use of the platform.

14. Changes to Terms

These Terms may be updated from time to time. Continued use of the platform after changes are posted means the user accepts the updated Terms.
